OVER HALF MILLION.

Number of Pensioners on the Pay Roll

RAPIDLY GROWING LARGER.

It Will Require an Appropriation of $135,000,000 to Pay Pensioners During the Next Fiscal Year—Congressmen Growing Uneasy Over the Present State of Affairs—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—It is not to be concealed that a good many members of congress are looking with a good deal of solemnity upon the appropriation for pensions that is asked for the fiscal year which begins on the 1st of next July. Even those who feel the kindest to the old soldiers are growing serious at the contemplation of appropriating $135,000,000 in one year—not because they are disposed to be finicky, but because those who do not receive pensions are showing signs of restiveness. And $135,000,000 is not the limit, either, for the special bills are pouring in and more general bills are proposed. Two general bills are demanded by the advocates of liberal pensions—the service pension and the prisoner of war pension—which will add, it is estimated, over $60,000,000 a year to the sum now required to carry out the laws now in force.

Naturally there is a delicacy about calling a halt. The representatives of the people are appreciative of the value of the services which were rendered by the preservers of the Union, and they do not wish to give offense. But I find that quite a number of congressmen come to Washington this winter with minds filled with protests of the conservative element of their constituents against inconsiderate pension legislation, and one of the best known members of the house gives it as his opinion that it will be more difficult than ever to secure the passage of meritorious measures because of the hugeness of the appropriations now required. He himself is an old soldier and has a fine record as a brave officer and his sympathies are with his old comrades, but he does not hesitate to say that it will be impossible to pass any more general pension bills until there is a decrease of the appropriations. A good many, I am told, are of this opinion.

Ten years ago the number of pensioners was 350,392, and the amount of pension money paid was $56,777,174. In 1885 the number of pensioners had increased to 345,125 and the amount paid to $56,102,267. This year there are 537,944 pensioners who receive in the aggregate $106,936,853. So it will be seen that the increase in the number of pensioners and the amount paid is increasing with considerable rapidity. It is estimated that on the 1st day of July, 1892, there will be on the rolls 586,717 pensioners under existing laws. The figuring is done in this way:

|---|----------|
| Total number of claims to be allowed during 1892 | 412,047 |
| Probable number of original claims | 80,000 |
| Probable number now on rolls | 80,000 |
| Average value of each pension during 1892, at $2 per month | $108.00 |
| Average annual value (June 30, 1890) of all pensions below $12 per month | 74.52 |

|---|-------------|
| Net cost of each increase case chargeable to act of June 27, 1890 | $38.48 |
| Cost to pay 40,000 pensioners under this act (allowed in 1891) during 1892, 40,000 at $108 | $4,320,000 |

|---|----------------------|
| Net cost to pay 40,000 pensioners during 1892 who were increased during 1891, and whose cost during 1892, under general laws, is included in estimate thereunder, $108 less $74.52 equals | $33.48, $1,339,200 |
| Original cases to be allowed in 1892 | |
| Cost ten months of 1891, 80,000 at $90 | $7,200,000 |
| Cost twelve months of 1892, 80,000 at $108 | $8,640,000 |

|--|-------------|
| Pensions to be increased in 1892; Cost ten months of 1891, 80,000 at $37.90 | $2,232,000 |
| Cost 80,000 at $33.48 | 2,678,400 |

|--|--------------|
| Net cost chargeable to act of June 27, 1890, in increase cases | 4,910,400 |
| Total cost of act of June 27, 1890, during 1892 | $26,409,600 |
| Cost of pensions under general laws during 1892 | 106,763,485 |

| Grand total cost of pensions during 1892 | $133,173,085 |

Senate and House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The senate passed Mr. Call's resolution directing the superintendent of the labor bureau to examine the phosphate industry of Florida; also, (after debate) the joint resolution for issuing arms to settlers in North and South Dakota and Nebraska. Mr. Fugh made an extended argument against the Federal election bill. Several minor measures were taken from the calendar and passed.

In the house the bill making wardens responsible for the pension money of minors was passed. The pension appropriation bill was discussed without action.

A Reapportionment Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Republican leaders in the house have decided to prepare a reapportionment bill without waiting until the New York census controversy is decided. Chairman Dannel, in accordance with this decision, has begun work on the figures furnished by Superintendent Porter, showing the apportionment for each state, based on increases in the membership of the house from 332 to 375 inclusive. Mr. Dannel has not decided on the number of members that the bill will provide. It is intended to have the bill introduced at an early day and passed by the house before the Christmas recess.

Public Building at Toledo.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—A bill appropriating $50,000 for the erection and extension of a public building at Toledo, O., was introduced in the house yesterday by Representative Haynes, of Ohio.

OPERA HOUSE BURNED.
The Fire Causes a Panic in a Hotel—A Fire in Pittsburgh.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—The Timmerman opera house in Englewood, a suburb of Chicago, was destroyed by fire shortly after 10 o'clock last night. Fortunately no performance was given last night, but as it was there were many escapes from death. In the building, occupying the second and third floors, is a large fashionable hotel that was filled with guests.

When the flames burst out in the theatre a panic ensued in the hotel, and as many of the guests had retired for the night they came tumbling down the stairs in a wild scramble to reach the street. Some were overcome by the dense clouds of suffocating smoke that rolled in volumes through the hallways, but fortunately all were rescued and borne to the open air by the firemen. A rough estimate of the loss places it at between $75,000 and $100,000. It is supposed the fire was caused by the furnace.

Big Fire in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 5.—Fire started at 1:15 this morning in E. Maggin's fireworks and cracker factory, 916 Liberty street, and at this hour is still burning. Four firemen were caught under falling walls and seriously injured. It is thought several other firemen may be still under the debris. A searching party is now looking for any other unfortunate that may have been caught in the tumbling mass of bricks. The loss will not fall short of $100,000.

A Kansas Town on Fire

SALINA, Kan., Dec. 5.—Reports from Brookfield, this county, says nearly the whole town is on fire. The flames started early this forenoon and one business block and the Central hotel are nearly consumed. The town has about 400 inhabitants and no way to extinguish the fire except by buckets. A strong wind is blowing. No estimate of the loss can be obtained.

UNEXPLAINABLE ROBBERY.

Diamonds Abstracted from the Vault of a Safe Deposit Company.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 5.—Detectives are at work upon one of the most extensive, as it is mysterious, diamond robberies ever perpetrated in the city. The diamonds were the property of Mrs. Kirk B. Armour, and when stolen were in a private box in the vaults of a safe deposit company, where they had been stored. They consisted of earrings, rings and other articles of jewelry, and were worth fully $10,000.

As soon as the robbery was detected, a list of the diamonds was made out and detectives were employed to locate them. But the shrewdest of detectives were baffled in their search for a clew, and so far as can be learned, not the slightest headway towards the recovery of the jewelry has been made. The detectives are puzzled to know how the jewels were extracted from the tin box. As is well known, two keys are required to open the box, each fitting in separate keyholes. One of the keys is held by the deposit company and the other by the party renting the box, and neither can open the lock unless the other is present.

Smallpox Scare.

FINDLAY, O., Dec. 5.—The smallpox has broken out in the town of McComb, eight miles west of this city. The first case was that of Mrs. Joshua Simon, who, on returning from visiting friends in Chicago, was attacked by the dreaded disease. Her children, who were attending the public school, have been exposed, and fears are entertained that smallpox will spread throughout the town, which contains about 2,000 inhabitants. The premises of Mrs. Simon are quarantined, and every effort will be taken to prevent the spread of the malady. There is much excitement and apprehension in the village.

Plot to Escape from Jail.

TIFFIN, O., Dec. 5.—While the wife of Sheriff Hepp was alone in jail, a prisoner, named Hoover, awaiting trial for grand larceny, set fire to the straw in his cot. It proved a badly conceived plot for a wholesale jail delivery, as the prisoners holed to escape during the excitement. Mrs. Hepp refused to open the door until aid had arrived and the prisoners nearly suffocated. No damage was done to the building.

Horribly Mangled by a Saw.

HUNTINGBURG, Ind., Dec. 5.—News just reaches here of a frightful accident that occurred at Ireland, about eight miles from here. While Thomas Hudson, a young man, was sawing stove wood with a swinging cut-off saw, the saw by some means struck him below the left shoulder, ranging downward, and inflicting a wound twelve or thirteen inches in length, that may prove fatal.

Two Safes Burialized.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 5.—Cracksmen blew open two safes Wednesday night. The safe at Taylor's handle factory was completely demolished, and one at Aigin & Company's laundry badly broken. The safe at the laundry contained $50, but in blowing it open the door was wedged so they could not get it. They secured only twenty-two cents.

A SIOUX MEMORIAL

The President Receives a Letter from the Indians.

THEY CLAIM TO BE STARVING.

Hollow Horn Bear Wants to Take a Trip to Washington at the Government's Expense—Acting Indian Commissioner Belt Makes a Statement to Secretary Noble—Latest from the Frontier.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The following memorial, signed by 102 Sioux Indians, received by the president, has been referred to the acting commissioner of Indian affairs:

ROSEBUD AGENCY, Nov. 6, 1890.

GREAT FATHER—This day I will write you a letter with a good heart. When we gave up the Black Hills, you told us in that treaty that a man would get three pounds of beef a day; the meaning was three pounds for one man. Besides you said we could get food just like the soldiers. You did not, however, give it to us at this rate.

Great father, we are starving, and beg you therefore to give to us just so, as you have promised. Thirty men of us get for eighteen days only one cow to eat; that is the reason I mention it. And if you do not well understand it, send me, Hollow Horn Bear, travelling money, and I will come with five men.

Great father, if you do not want to do so, then please let us have a soldier for our father agent, when our present father's term is out.

Great father, please do us this favor. In reply to this memorial Acting Commissioner Belt in a letter to Secretary Noble says that the law does not promise the Indians "food just like soldiers," but only a ration of beef, flour, bacon, coffee, sugar and beans, or such other articles in lieu thereof as the commissioner of Indian affairs may decide.

In reply to the charges that the Indians signed an agreement that rations would not be reduced and that the supply was reduced 2,000,000 pounds and that those signing the agreement felt imposed upon, Mr. Belt says: "The Indians received rations to the full amount warranted by the appropriations made by congress."

In regard to the complaint made by Gen. Brooke that the Indians did not get the additional supply of beef, Mr. Belt says that in view of the fact that owing to the drouth of last summer and the scarcity of grazing on the reservation, the cattle delivered under contracts in October last will no doubt shrink considerably during the coming winter, when severe weather prevails and the range grazing is difficult and scarce.

A tabulated statement accompanies the letter showing the amount of supplies furnished the several agencies, and it is stated that in addition to these supplies, there was expended in open market prior to the passage of the Indian appropriation act and subsequently, but before contracts were executed and approved, the following sums, viz.: For Pine Ridge agency, $28,500; for Rosebud agency, $31,300, and for Standing Rock agency, $21,000.

A Hopeful Outlook.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Gen. Schofield yesterday afternoon received a dispatch from Gen. Brooke, stating that forty lodges of Indians have left the Rosebud camp since they moved across the White river to the edge of the "Bad Lands." There are, he says, strong signs of disintegration among the Indians in camp, they being about evenly divided as to whether they shall return to the agency or not. From all that Gen. Brooke can learn about their desires, he says that he is convinced that a majority of them want to come in.

War department officials are much gratified with Gen. Brooke's dispatch, and now look for a speedy settlement of the Indian troubles.

General Miles Talks.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Regarding the Indian situation Gen. Miles said: "I do not think any engagement will occur immediately, but an outbreak may occur at any time. I am taking every precaution to prevent one. I shall go to the northwest in a day or two and give general directions, but not necessarily to take the field in person."

SITTING BULL'S CAPTURE

About to Be Made When the President is Heard From.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Dec. 5.—Dr. Frank Powell returned to his home in this city Wednesday from Standing Rock Agency, N. Dak., accompanied by William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), and R. H. Haslam, (Pony Bob). Col. Cody stated that his party was in the heart of the Indian country, seventeen miles from the camp of Sitting Bull, where the ghost dance was in progress.

"Our mission was to capture Sitting Bull," said Col. Cody, "and we would have accomplished our object had not a courier overtaken us on the edge of the reservation with dispatches from the president ordering our party to return without carrying Gen. Miles' orders into effect. Our trip was not attended with any dangers. We were sent there not on a mission of assassination, but capture."

"The trouble as it is now is unprecedented. Our party traveled 1,500 miles in less than seven days, and our surprise was great in being recalled from our mission. We could have taken the bull, horse and all into captivity, I am sure, without the loss of a single life. It is impossible for me to tell at this time whether this uprising will result in the destruction of thousands of lives and homes are in a peaceable settlement. It looks dark today, but the military may be able to handle them satisfactorily. We were sent out by the United States government and did our duty until called back. Here awaiting orders from the war department, and should Gen. Miles order Powell and myself across the country at once, we will take the iron horse as far as we can go and then the saddle, and take Sitting Bull and all his family if we are ordered to do so. I am hourly expecting orders to get to the front, and the same party will accompany me."

TWO KILLED, SIX HURT.

Chicago and Alton Passenger Train Wrecked in Illinois.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 5.—The Chicago and Alton through Kansas City express, called the "Hummer," which left Chicago last night, was run into by a Wabash coal train at 2 o'clock at Jacksonville, Ill.

Two passengers were instantly killed and six others seriously hurt, some of whom may die. The Chicago and Alton express had stopped on the crossing to take on passengers, when the heavy freight coming from the south, and which was, according to the statement of the Wabash officials unmanageable, came thundering along and crashed into the rear sleeper, splitting it entirely in two pieces.

The engine rushed through the sleeping car, throwing the sleeping passengers, dead and wounded, to the right and left, piling cars of coal in a huge mass upon the demolished passenger coach.

A few minutes afterward a headless body was found sticking out of the ruins, and taken out. A little while afterward the head was found and placed beside the trunk. The body was identified as that of James Riffe, of Fountain Place, Ill., who boarded the train at Delavan.

The next body recovered was that of Fred Smith, a merchant of Pekin, Ill. His body was badly crushed.

Six other passengers were taken from the wreck with broken limbs and internal injuries.

General Manager Hayes, of the Wabash, is of the opinion that the Chicago and Alton train did not stop on the crossing, but backed onto the crossing to get a start, and by so doing got in the way of the freight.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Terrible Accident at a Joliet, Illinois, Blast Furnace.

JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 5.—A terrible accident, with loss of life, occurred at the blast furnace department of the Illinois Iron and Steel company's works yesterday. The blast furnace, which was blown out for relining and repairs, made necessary since the recent explosion, which was also attended with loss of life, fell to the ground yesterday, when about twenty men were engaged at work on it. Eleven men were at work in the inside at the bottom, and six on top when the accident happened.

The work of rescuing the victims was begun at once, but it was not until late in the afternoon that the bodies were all recovered. Seven bodies were removed, mutilated beyond a semblance of humanity.

The dead are: Neils Larson, John Pederson, Gus. Loosa, Thompson Swanson, Slaus Farnack, Frank Miller, John M. Asstadis.

Those most seriously injured are: Oscar Lind, Joseph Mason, John Oleson, August Wentzerg, A. Seisenair, Peter Erickson, John Larson, Patrick Kilenlen.

The accident was caused by the giving away of one of the heavy columns on which the huge blast furnace rests. The loss to the company is estimated at $75,000.

KING KALAKUA ARRIVES.

He is Welcomed to Our Shores by Prominent Californians.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The United States steamship Charleston, with King Kalakua on board, arrived at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from Honolulu. The Charleston on passing Alcatraz Island was greeted by a royal salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the king.

As the war ship passed up the harbor many ships dipped their flags. Gen. Gibbon, commanding the division of the Pacific, and Hawaiian Consul McKinley, met the Charleston in the government steamer Governor McDowell, boarded her and welcomed the king to the city. Late in the afternoon his majesty came ashore and was escorted to the Palace hotel by Gen. Gibbon and staff, in full uniform. At the hotel the king was met by Governor Waterman, Mayor Pond and other officials and prominent citizens.

Col. McFarlane, the king's chamberlain, said in reference to his majesty's health, that it had much improved since he left Honolulu. He would remain in California for five or six weeks and would not go east. The king's eyes are only slightly troubled, but enough so to make it probable that the services of an oculist will be required during his stay. Before Kalakua left Honolulu he issued a proclamation providing for the control of the nation during his absence, in which he appointed his sister, Princess Liliuokalani regent.

Insane From a Scare.

CARTHAGE, Ill., Dec. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hardy, two popular young people, were married Monday, and Tuesday night a gang of ruffians surrounded the house to give them a charivari. The bride fainted on hearing the hideous noise and lay unconscious several hours. Her husband, fearing she was dead, became wild, and it was feared his mind would be impaired, but he is improving.

Vengeance on a White Cap.

CORYDON, Ind., Dec. 5.—A few months ago Thomas Neely, living near Mauckport, this county, was flogged by White Caps, and he accused "Buff" Watson of being one of his assailants. Meeting Watson upon the street Neely proceeded to use his knife upon him with telling effect, and it is said he inflicted injuries that will prove fatal.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1890.

The stenographer who takes down the proceedings of the Constitutional convention gets $1,280 a month for his work. Way not turn the keys of the treasury over to him?

The Sinking Fund Commissioners have released three more convicts from the "pen" under the parole law, making about one hundred released to date, and of these only four have so conducted themselves as to necessitate their return. The law is a good one, if rightly enforced.

Judging by reports that reach here from Fleming, distilled corn juice must have wonderful curative properties up in that county. It is said one firm of physicians at Flemingsburg use about two barrels of the liquor every month as "medicine." Many of their patients probably won't take anything else.

Artificial Skull Shaping.

Astonishing success has attended the efforts of Dr. Lannelongue, an eminent specialist of Paris, to give intelligence to a little idiot girl. Though four years old, the child could neither walk nor stand, and never smiled nor took notice of anything. The doctor concluded that the abnormal narrowness of the head obstructed the growth of the brain, and in May last he made an incision in the centre of the skull and cut a piece of bone from the left side. The result was marvelous. Within less than a month the child could walk, and she has become quite bright—playing, smiling and taking notice of everything around her.—Exchange.

Tobacco Growers' Meeting.

The tobacco growers of Mason County will hold another meeting at the court house to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock to hear reports from the solicitors for stock in the proposed association, and transact other business.

In response to the invitation extended at last meeting, delegates will no doubt be present from many of the surrounding counties. Messrs E. M. Devore, John Buchanan and V. Sneider have been appointed representatives from Brown County, O., and Fleming will send a delegation.

Commenting on the move to establish independent warehouses, the Covington Commonwealth says: "The Philadelphia Record thinks the tobacco growers of Kentucky have taken the right way to deal with the monopoly of the tobacco combine. So they did. They took the right course manfully, but what efforts have been made to keep in that way? There is ample unity of intent, but not enough quickness of action to raise enough funds to carry on the warfare. There are warehouses suited for the purpose of the grower in the cities of Maysville, Lexington and Covington; but it seems the grower prefers the slower process of building than the effective method of renting or buying. Delay on the part of the grower is the magnificent opportunity of the warehousemen."

SCHOOL NOTES.

ORANGEBURG—No. 21.

Here is a good commodious school house with ample play ground. The trustees are Thomas Dickson, Millard Campbell and Frank Kennan. The teacher is Miss Alice Humphreys. Number of pupils sixty-nine. The school seemed under very good management and behaved well. We heard classes in U. S. history, spelling and other studies. They did well. Miss Humphreys is a very faithful, conscientious teacher, and seemed to be well sustained by the trustees.

FARRAE'S CREEK—No. 46.

Here is an excellent school house, light and cheerful, nicely painted outside and well furnished inside. The trustees are J. J. Dickson, Jas. C. Thomas and Benj. Reeder. These trustees are active and faithful in looking after the welfare of the school. The teacher is Miss Amy Goddard, and a good one. She is full of enthusiasm, bright, cheerful, ready and infuses the same spirit into her pupils. She seems to find no difficulty in controlling and managing this large school, containing forty-nine scholars. We heard classes in written and oral arithmetic, spelling and other studies, all of which showed excellent training. A very bright class recited in primary geography, in primary history of the U. S. and other studies. A recitation in grammar upon improvised questions was excellent. A little girl, Georgie May Roe, gave a recitation which was exceedingly well done. The spirit and life which Miss Goddard infuses into her scholars is productive of good results, and greatly brightens the school. We were hospitably entertained by Captain Champ Farrow, one of our noblest, who almost everybody knows, and those who do not, would do well to make his acquaintance speedily.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

Mrs. J. H. Brent, of Paris, Stricken With a Strange Malady.

The wife of Hon. J. H. Brent of Paris, late candidate for Superior Court Judge, was stricken this week with a strange malady.

The attack came on suddenly while she was talking to some friends. The disease caused the muscles of her legs to contract violently, breaking both hips.

A special says: "Her terrible agony was beyond description. Several physicians were hurriedly summoned, but the most powerful opiates were of but little avail against such an attack. It is thought that she can not possibly recover. Even if relieved for the present, it is feared that a more advanced stage of the disease will attack a vital part, like the spinal column, and death result immediately. Mrs. Brent is one of the most popular ladies in Paris. Highly cultured, accustomed to the refining influences of wealth, with a winsome face, a bright smile or pleasant nod of recognition for all, she won a host of friends."

The Paris Record pronounces the disease "mollities ossium," and says her physicians state it is the only case of the kind they have ever seen in all their long practice. The patient had had symptoms of sciatic rheumatism for several weeks.

Mrs. Brent formerly lived in this city. Her maiden name was Chambers, and she has many relatives at Washington.

Religious.

A revival in the Eleventh Street M. E. Church, South, of Covington, has resulted in 30 or 40 conversions.

Preaching at the Central Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 3:30 and this evening at 7 o'clock. You are cordially invited.

Miss Mollie Marrimon, "The Little Messenger," is assisting Rev. Jo. R. Nelson in a revival at the Dover M. E. Church, South.

A new Presbyterian Church will be built at Winchester in the near future. The ladies of the congregation have raised $5,000 to furnish and decorate the interior.

Changes at the Central Hotel.

Extensive changes and improvements have been completed at the Central Hotel.

An apartment about sixteen by twenty-four feet in dimensions has been partitioned off from the front end of the old dining room, and fitted up in elegant style for a ladies' parlor.

The dining room has been extended several feet in the rear by the removal of a partition, and the kitchen has been moved into rooms at the extreme west end of the building. A baggage elevator has also been put in. Mine host Captain Collier is better prepared now than ever before to entertain the traveling public.

Interesting Items About the Railways

The item in the BULLETIN one day this week concerning the receipts of the C. and O. at this point for November was misleading. The freight receipts for the month, instead of being only $500, were $500 more than for the corresponding month last year.

During the month of November accidents were more numerous than in any month in the history of the roads in this country. There were a total of 283 accidents, in which 80 persons were killed and 380 injured, and the fatalities were largely on what are considered the best roads of the United States.

Hear it Sing! Hear it Talk!

Edison's wonderful phonograph or talking machine is on exhibition for a few days only at store room in the Cox Building. Gilmore's famous band can be heard as plainly as if really present. Music also by the celebrated Georgia Quartette; piano, violin and harp solos by distinguished artists; Gladstone's original letter. Five cents a selection. The ladies are especially invited.

Mr. H. C. BARKLEY has sold to S. N. Meyer the business property occupied by Daulton & Roden on the east side of Sutton street for $2,700 and other valuable consideration.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

HELENA.

Mr. T. L. Best and wife spent Thanksgiving with their daughters in Millersburg.

Mrs. Peck and son, of Fleming County, spent Saturday and Sunday in this place with the family of Dr. D. D. Peck.

T. L. Best was in Louisville this week. Born, to the wife of John Taylor, twins. Both girls, one of them with a full set of teeth. John is happy.

Jess Runyon, colored, was tried Dec. 3rd for carrying concealed deadly weapons. The jury found him guilty and fixed his punishment at $25 fine and imprisonment in the county jail 10 days.

Mrs. Amanda Mitchell, of the Washington neighborhood, visited relatives here this week.

Dan Mitchell was out driving the 2nd inst. when his horse became frightened and ran away and completely demolished the driving cart and harness.

The farmers of this precinct have subscribed up to date $2,400 to the tobacco enterprise. Let Maysville put up liberally and secure the warehouse.

BENJAMIN TEAGARDEN, who lives near Powersville, attempted suicide last Friday by taking chloroform and afterwards trying to cut his throat. He had been drinking some, but no reason is given for his wanting to take his own life, except a report that he killed a man in Cincinnati the day before. The killing story, however, is a "fake," as far as can be learned.—Augusta Vindicator.

MISS AMANDA G. LEE died yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, near Lewisburg. She had been an invalid several years. Deceased was a sister of Mr. J. Wesley Lee, the clothing merchant of this city, and was about thirty years of age. The funeral services were held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Lewisburg Baptist Church, of which she had been a member for some time.

HORACE JOHNSON, Connecticut's weather prophet, says: "Look out for a siege this winter, with plenty of snow and ice." As against this comes a scientific theory stating that the winter will be a mild one—based upon the fact that the gulf stream having changed its course is flowing in against the coast of Newfoundland, closer than ever before. As long as this condition exists, look out for mild, open winters, say scientific men.

THOMAS CUMMINGS, whose arrest on charge of stealing from C. & O. freight cars in Chester was mentioned a few days since, was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court. He gave the required bond—$200. One witness, Thos. Carr, testified that he saw Cummings leave the car with three boxes of cigars. Carr is under bond on a similar charge, and twenty-seven cans of oysters which it is claimed he stole have been recovered.

THE Winchester Democrat has the following: "A letter was received at the postoffice Saturday, with the following inscription:

"To the State of Kentucky this letter must go, To the postoffice at Winchester, Clark County, you know;

And when it gets there it is easy to say That Miss Lizzie C— will take it away."

On the back of the envelope, a mail clerk, evidently overcome by the touching beauty of these lines, gave vent to his feelings thusly:

"Alas! that the mail clerk is always so busy, Or I, too, would write sweet verses to Lizzie. However, I hope this letter will go it, And never return to such a poor poet."

THE Winchester Democrat says: "Everybody has heard or read of the famous Swift silver mine that is said to be hidden away in some part of Eastern Kentucky and which has been sought for as persistently as Captain Kidd's treasure, and with as little success. Interest in it is revived by a telegram from Glasgow that a band of Cherokee Indians are on their way to Rowan County to search for it. Among the number is an old man 113 years old who claims to have a chart of the mine and a map of the locality."

Traces of silver were discovered in the neighborhood of Petersville, Lewis County, a year or so ago. Perhaps the mine is located thereabouts.

FIRST ONLY!

FIRST IN LOW PRICES.

FIRST IN QUALITIES.

FIRST IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

We are the first in low prices because we have the advantage of getting quantity discounts, in addition to cash discounts, and give our customers the benefit of these.

We are first in qualities because we have the whole field of manufacturers to select from; we cull from the very best of these, and the world cannot surpass them. This makes us first hands to the people—we are no "middle man"—our customers get from us the benefits of the profits of the "middle man." We do not buy of jobbers. We know no middle condition. The "middle man" is a relic of the moss-covered past.

We are first in the interests of the people because our system, from which we never vary, of necessity works to their interest. Our unalterable rule is cash and one price. We treat all alike in respect to prices. We charge Mr. Smith, who has no Bank account, just the same for a pair of shoes that we charge Mr. Jones, the coupon clipper, for a similar pair. We do not burden the people with debts. We have no credit customers of the "good" class to saddle with percentage for delinquencies, making them carry our bad debts.

We have no shelf-worn goods, no "crabs" or "trash." Our goods are new; we do not permit them to get old—our prices force them to go.

The cheapest, the newest, the best.

Come and see us; we will save you money.

Messrs. Thomas A. Davis and W. W. Ball appeared as representatives of the Commercial Club, and Mr. Davis stated the club had obtained legal opinions on the rights of the city to appropriate money as a gift or donation to secure new manufacturing enterprises and that these opinions were clear and positive that the city had no right to make such appropriations. The club therefore asked that Council rescind the ordinance providing for a vote on Dec. 15 on the question of making said appropriation. Mr. Fitzgerald offered an ordinance repealing said ordinance and the rules were suspended and it was passed. So there will be no special election on the 15th.

The ordinance offered at last meeting to abolish the system of night police was called up and read the second time. Mr. Fitzgerald moved the adoption and called for the yeas and nays. The vote stood: Yeas—Fitzgerald, Kehoe, Triplett—3; Nays—Cox, Wadsworth, Rudy, Pecor, Ficklin, Wood, Fleming, Saulsbury—8.

The committee to whom the question of selling the station house property was referred reported that no arrangement could be made with the county to keep the prisoners until the Court of Claims met, and the matter was continued in hands of committee.

A motion was adopted that the city enter into a contract with Mr. E. W. Fitzgerald to collect back taxes, Mr. Fitzgerald to receive 25 per cent. of all such taxes he may collect.

Wm. A. Schatzmann, agent for the Geo. Wiedeman Brewing Company, was granted permission to erect a frame building on west side of Limestone street between Front and Second, for storage of ice and beer and for stable purposes.

John Hays was donated a sum equal to his merchants' license for five months, the license having been taken from him.

The hotel license of Messrs. Burtle, proprietors of the "Grand View," was transferred to M. E. McKellup.

On motion of Mr. Wood it was ordered that hereafter all petitions for license be made through the Committee on License.

An additional fire plug was ordered put down on Third street between Wall and Short.

The Internal Improvement Committee was ordered to put down a brick pavement in front of public school house on Forest avenue, and also to lay a brick gutter on north side of Forest avenue.

The usual election ordinance for the January election, 1891, was passed, with inspectors as follows:

First ward—(Jacob Outten's shop) Joseph

Lowry and M. J. McCarthy, judges; J. W. Thompson clerk.

Second ward—(Old taye shop near opera house) James Redmond, Jr., and Louis Hoskton, judges; J. C. Rains, clerk.

Third ward—(McDonnell's taylor shop on Market street) P. J. Murphy and C. L. Sallee, judges; W. R. Archdeacon, clerk.

Fourth ward—(Heimer's shoe shop) John L. Grant and Jacob Miller, judges; J. T. Short, clerk.

Fifth ward—(Shafer & Davis building) W. H. Wallingford and J. B. Fleming, judges; Clarence Mathews, clerk.

The list of delinquent tax-payers was then read. The names of about 460 voters appear on the list.

The Fleming Circuit Court has adjourned. There were several criminal cases tried, but only one where the charge was a felony, and the defendant was acquitted.

The Mason County Teachers' Association will meet in this city on Saturday, Dec. 13th. A general attendance of all teachers in public schools is requested.

MR. BERT HERN, a farmer, of Montgomery County, Ohio, signed an order for five dollars to pay for new tips for his lightning rods. It was turned into a $500 note, and he paid $200 to compromise. Keep good eyes open for swindlers. The "woods" are full of 'em.

MARKET street was lighted by electricity last night for the first time in the history of the city. The Central Hotel's large arc light was the only one turned on, and it made the gas light look like that of tallow candles. The machinery at the plant in the West End worked smoothly.

In the case of David Wilson, executor of W. H. Cord, versus Mary F. Cord et al., at Flemingsburg, the court adjudged that the marriage contract for $25,000 existing between W. H. MINER'S MAXIMS

"The First and Worst of

All Frauds is to Cheat

Ourselves.

Don't take any stock, then, in "bargains." In healthy trade there are no "bargains." There can be a just and true equivalent for your money, and nothing more.

When you're told that you'll get "astounding bargains at so and so's for a mere song," make a note of this—they're trying to play a confidence game on you. It's simply a pure case of swindle, although they escape punishment. It's as true as fate that every honest business man is bound to charge you what his wares are intrinsically worth.

The number of people who believe in "bargains" is growing much less. "Bargain" advertisements are scarcely read now—or, if anybody does glance at 'em, they're dismissed with the remark: "Another fake!"

MINER BROS. never pretend (except in very exceptional cases) to offer so-called "bargains," but what they always aim to do is to sell the best goods at the least margin consistent with commercial integrity—to give the greatest possible value for the smallest possible return.

Sensible people don't expect more than this. If they do, they cheat themselves.

NATIONAL ALLIANCE.

A Third Party in the Next Presidential Campaign.

MOVEMENT ALREADY BEGUN.

A Convention to Be Held in Cincinnati Next February to Take Further Action. Transactions of the Meeting Now Being Held in Ocala, Florida.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 5.—The National Alliance met at 10:30 yesterday and the first hour was devoted to a discussion of inside topics. A. Gallagher, fraternal delegate from the Workingmen's Reform League, of New York city, and W. H. Carsey, of Washington, D. C., from the American Anti-Monopoly League, then addressed the convention, each speaking for half an hour. Their remarks were principally directed in favor of a closer bond between all National organizations of this character, but against consolidation. They also advised the National Alliance to stand by its St. Louis platform, to take the lead in any National political movement which might grow out of it, and asserted that other organizations would follow.

At the afternoon session, Messrs. Holden, Williams and Rice, representing the Citizens Alliance, of Kansas, made addresses which, in the main followed in the same line of thought and argument. They said that their organization was as deeply interested in the farmers' movement as was the Alliance itself. They saw no reason why merchants, traders, etc., should not unite in promoting this movement, and they asked for a committee of conference to arrange closer relations between the Citizens and Farmers' Alliances. The request was granted and a committee appointed.

Messrs. Gallagher and Carey, from the New York Workingmen's Reform League and Anti-Monopoly League respectively, addressed the convention and asked that organizers be sent to New York state to form sub-alliances there, getting the membership from among the mechanics and laborers.

Col. Livingstone replied and said that he did not regard it as fitting or politic that all classes of men should belong to the same organization. They should keep up organizations of their own, but should fraternize more closely and confer together upon measures of public policy. The masses of the country were in the same boat and should work together. "The money power of this country," he continued, "backed up by the money power of Europe is our common enemy. To meet this enemy and to cope with it successfully, co-operation is necessary and it must come about. I therefore recommend co-operation and fraternity with other National bodies but not consolidation."

A resolution was passed allowing three cents mileage each way, and a per diem of $2 to all delegates to the National meeting.

The special committee appointed to estimate the work of the convention reported the work would probably be done by Saturday at midnight.

The five-minute rule on speeches was adopted.

A resolution providing for the appointment of one delegate from each state Alliance to the Asheville, N. C., investigating convention Dec. 17, was adopted.

The thanks of the convention were unanimously voted to President Rogers, of the Florida Alliance, for the hospitality extended to the Alliance.

A resolution providing for the government taking charge of all improvements of the Mississippi river was referred to the transportation committee.

Congressman-elect Pickler, of South Dakota, made a speech advocating the free coinage of silver.

A resolution calling upon state and National legislatures to reduce the salaries of public officers to more moderate sums was referred to the committee on legislation.

A number of Kansas delegates, including J. W. Rice, John Davis, and Delegate Vincent are working upon a call for a National convention to form a new party, the date being fixed on Feb. 2, 1891, and the place Cincinnati. Delegates from the National Farmers' Alliance, and all other National organizations in sympathy with it, or which endorse the St. Louis platform as well as the editors of the "reform press" throughout the country will be invited to take part in the convention. The new party to be formed would doubtless work on the same lines as the People's party in Kansas, that is, renounce all affiliation with the other political parties and place a National ticket of its own in the field. This call when completed will undoubtedly be presented to the National Alliance for its endorsement. Some of the men in the movement, however, are not convinced that this course will be wise or politic.

Congressman-elect Davis, of Kansas, said yesterday afternoon call for the conference endorses the Alliance platform and invites all organizations in sympathy with that declaration to send delegates to Cincinnati. It has been extensively signed by Alliance members and by delegates of other organizations. When asked if the call touched upon other measures of public policy than the St. Louis platform, Mr. Davis said it did. It lays down, he said, four propositions with reference to National reform, viz: finance, transportation, land and labor. The call will not be presented to the National Alliance for its endorsement as a body, but will be circulated for signatures in thirty-six Alliance states, and perhaps in all the states of the union. Mr. Davis further said the convention would undoubtedly place a presidential ticket in the field in 1892. The call he said would soon be published.

The members of the Alliance press committee could not be found until late in the afternoon and then they were utterly ignorant of the transactions of the convention. The correspondents in attendance on the convention united in a letter to President Polk, complaining of the negligence of the press committee and asking him to use his influence to better the facilities for obtaining the doings of the convention. The president referred to this communication in the convention and urged on the press committee the importance of attending to its duties. Subsequently all the correspondents in the city met and appointed a committee of three to wait on President Polk and ask him to define his policy with reference to conveying information to the press. He promised to have the official stenographer of the convention confer with the chairman of the press committee at frequent intervals during the day and night and give out promptly all information relating to matters of public interest.

TERRIBLE AFFLICTION.

The Muscles of a Lady's Legs Contract So Violently as to Break the Limbs.

PARIS, Ky., Dec. 5.—Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock as Mrs. J. Harry Brent, wife of Hon. J. Harry Brent, late candidate for judge of the superior court, was sitting quietly at home conversing with her children, the muscles of the right leg suddenly contracted with such force as to break the thigh. The terrible agony of the poor sufferer was pitiful to behold. Nearly crazed with grief and excitement, the children hurriedly summoned a physician, who responded immediately, but all of his skill was unequal to the ravages of the terrible malady.

While attending the fractured limb, the left member also contracted, breaking the left thigh. The pain was so terribly agonizing it seemed for hours that lockjaw would set in and put an end to the suffering by death. The unfortunate lady is now "at death's door," and but little hope of her recovery is entertained. Mrs. Brent is one of the most popular ladies in Paris.

SURGEON GENERAL BAXTER DEAD.

Death Creates Another Vacancy in the United States Army.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Surgeon General Baxter, of the army, who was stricken with paralysis on Monday last, died at his residence in this city at an early hour yesterday morning. Dr. Baxter was born in Vermont in 1837. He practiced law when a young man, and later became a physician, and in June, 1861, he entered the army as surgeon of the Twelfth Massachusetts volunteers, and the next year became brigade surgeon.

After the war Surgeon Baxter was appointed assistant medical surveyor with the rank of lieutenant colonel, and in 1872 President Grant promoted him to the chief medical surveyorship of the army, and he held that position until Aug. 16, last, when President Harrison appointed him surgeon general.

Crushed to Death by a Log.

BLOOMFIELD, Ind., Dec. 5.—Quite a sad accident occurred a few miles east of this place Wednesday, resulting in the death of Uriah Chaney. He and Joseph Ockerman were sawing logs with a cross-cut saw on a hillside. Chaney standing on the lower side of the log. As soon as the log was sawed asunder it started rolling down the hill. Chaney, in an effort to get out of the way of the log, stumbled and fell, and was crushed to death instantly. The log remained across the dead man's breast until Ockerman went some distance for help.

Valuable Express Package Stolen.

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 5.—At 6 o'clock Wednesday night the United States Express messenger left a satchel containing several thousand dollars in packages hanging up in the office of the Baltimore and Ohio depot while he stepped out on some business, but when he returned five minutes afterward the door was unlocked and the contents of the satchel gone. The express officials are very reticent, refusing to say how much is the loss. Detectives are at work.

Working in a Grand Cause.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 5.—The horticulturists of Indiana are holding a very interesting meeting here. Professor B. E. Fernow, of Washington, chief of the forestry bureau, yesterday discussed the forests of Indiana. He said that Indiana, once heavily wooded, has in fifty years lost so much timber that only 20 per cent. of its area is now covered with woods. Over 500,000 acres are waste lands, fit only for the growth of trees.

Late in the Season for Fish Stories.

The Fleming Gazette says: "D. T. Fischer is the possessor of a Spanish coin made in 1721 that has a peculiar history. Six years ago as Fischer was crossing Fleming Creek the coin became detached from his watch-chain and fell into the water. Last Saturday J. L. Ripley caught a string of fish and while cleaning them found the coin lodged in the stomach of a nine-ounce cat-fish. Fischer, hearing of the occurrence, proved the above facts and the coin was returned to him."

Killed a Wild Cat.

ROCKPORT, Ind., Dec. 5.—While 'coon hunting last Friday night, Mr. Sam. Westfall, of Grandview, killed what is supposed to be a wild cat. It was a fierce looking animal and measured four feet and a half from head to tail. This is the second one of these animals killed in this county within the past year, the first one measuring five feet from head to tail, and killed two dogs before killed by the hunters who discovered it in the woods.
